SELDAT DISTRIBUTION, INC. NAMED A TOP 100 3PL PROVIDER

Seldat Distribution, Inc. (Seldat) is recognized as a top third-party logistics company by Inbound Logistics magazine in its annual Top 100 Third Party Logistics (3PL) Provider list.

“Each and every person at Seldat contributed to this accomplishment. This special recognition from Inbound Logistics is humbling knowing the industry landscape and the competition we face on a daily basis,” said Aaron Hunt, SVP Operations & Supply Chain. “Seldat will not rest on this achievement. Our vision is to be the global leader in technology-driven supply chain solutions. We’ll continue to expand our business to match the evolving challenges and requirements of being a global organization.”

Over the past twelve months, Seldat has expanded its physical footprint on both coasts of the United States and increased its asset based solutions with the addition of new vehicles and equipment. Furthermore, the company acquired Oceanstar (a leading NVOCC based out of Southern California), grew its presence across LATAM to include Colombia, Peru, Ecuador, and Panama, made significant gains in the EMEA market with a base of operations in Israel, and launched several new technology solutions.

“Seldat continues to provide the logistics, transportation, and supply chain solutions Inbound Logistics’ readers need to achieve speed, visibility, flexibility, and control that drives a successful supply chain”, said Felicia Stratton, editor, Inbound Logistics. “Seldat is responsive to customer’s evolving needs and that’s why Inbound Logistics is proud to honor Seldat for empowering logistics and supply chain excellence in 2018.”
